“ Dr. Raji Ambikairajah

The greatest impact that any of us can have is that which carries beyond our own lifetime. No matter where we are in the timeline of humanity, education will be the great leveler and the most effective tool in solving the world's challenges and creating future changemakers.

A MESSAGE FROM Dr. Geetha Murali, CEO

Ways to Give

RESIDUARY GIFT

After your loved ones are taken care of, designate a percentage of your estate to Room to Read.

PECUNIARY GIFT

You can designate a specific sum of funds to Room to Read. This type of gift is affected by inflation and may lose value over time.

SPECIFIC GIFT

Make a gift of a special item, such as a personal possession, land, buildings or stocks and shares.

Please consult with your tax, legal or professional advisor when creating your legacy.

Step 1

Think about what you would like to support - most supporters choose to invest in our greatest need.

Decide what type of gift is appropriate for you - a residuary gift will provide you with the most flexibility.

Step 3

Consult your financial advisor or visit your trusted online will-making website to create or adapt your will.

Step 4

Please let us know that you have included us in your estate plans so we can express our gratitude and keep you up to date on our work!
